

Culinary Programmes 2024

CTH Culinary Assessments may be taken at any time as long as the learner has been registered on the qualification and for the assessments. Centres will be asked to complete a form at the start of each course indicating the proposed dates of theory and practical exams and resits should they be required.

Culinary results will be issued four times a year after being presented to the CTH Exam Board and will be declared on electronic transcripts by the dates shown in the last column of the table below. Certification will be two weeks later, after allowing time for appeals.

Note 1 - All assessment registration fees must be received by CTH prior to each assessment session. For resits, registration is required and an assessment fee is payable.

Note 2 - A late registration fee per learner per assessment will be applied to assessment registrations received after the registration deadline.

Note 3 - All evidence for Culinary qualifications specified in the relevant Qualification Delivery & Assessment Handbook should be submitted at one time, except for theory exams.

Note 4 - Completed theory exam papers must be sent back to CTH immediately (within 24 hours of sitting the exam). Results for these papers will be notified within two weeks to allow centres to arrange resits if necessary.

Note 5 - For cohorts of more than 5 learners, Centres will be informed of names of learners to sample once results have been entered. Only then does the related evidence need to be submitted.

Note 6 - Moderation of all units will take place after the 'Last date for Evidence' date above for each Assessment Session. Where evidence is missing, CTH will not moderate the work and an absent grade will be awarded, and students must be registered for a resit for the affected units, and submit the evidence before the next session deadline.

Note 7 - Assignments and associated mark sheets for all learners must be submitted in Word format. All assignments must be submitted, not only those that have been chosen for sampling.

Note 8 - For resits, registration is required by the above registration deadlines, and an assessment fee or late assessment fee is payable.
